

RECREATION OPPORTUNITY GUIDE

Olympic National Forest

<http://www.fs.usda.gov/olympic>

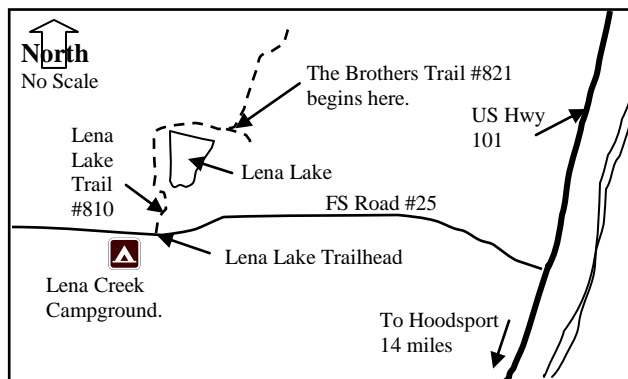

The Brothers Trail #821

Hood Canal Ranger District – Quilcene Office
295142 Highway 101 S. P.O. Box 280
Quilcene, WA 98376 (360) 765-2200

Recommended Season
SPRING SUMMER FALL WINTER

ACCESS: Drive Highway 101 to FS Road #25 (Hamma Hamma Recreation Area), 14 miles north of Hoodport. Go 8 miles on FS Road #25 to the Lena Lake Trailhead #810. Hike trail #810 for 3.6 miles to the beginning of The Brothers Trail #821 near north shore of Lena Lake.

FACILITIES: There is a large parking area at the Lena Lake Trailhead, a vault toilet, and potable water available at Lena Creek Campground (during camping season).

SETTING: Forest with lush, green, moss-covered valley and small intermittent stream.

TRAIL INFORMATION: This trail enters The Brothers Wilderness. Hike through a remote canyon area called the Valley of the Silent Men. The Brothers were named in 1856 by George Davidson of the U.S. Coast Survey after the Fauntleroy brothers - Edward (South peak) and Arthur (north peak) who were brothers of Constance and Ellinor Fauntleroy (the latter was fiancée of George Davidson), for whom he named Mt Ellinor and Mt Constance. The trail is maintained to The Brothers base camp. Only experienced climbers should continue on from the end of The Brothers Trail. Consult climbing books for climbing routes on The Brothers.

Destination	Miles	Elev.
Trail begins at Lower Lena Lake at the inlet of the east fork of Lena Creek	0.0	1,800'
The Brothers Wilderness	100'	1,900'
End of maintained trail	3.0	3,000'
Summit of the South Peak	4.5	6,866'

OPPORTUNITIES: Day hiking, mountain climbing, backpacking, and viewing scenery.

Note: Helmets, climbing gear, good boots and the ten essentials are needed for climbing The Brothers.

CLOSURES: Motorized vehicles, stock and mountain bikes are prohibited. Campfires above 3,500 feet elevation and groups consisting of more than 12 people are prohibited within The Brothers Wilderness.

TOPO MAPS: The Brothers – Mt. Anderson

Smoke drift across the Brothers from the 1999 Oh Brother Wildfire

PASS REQUIRED: A Recreation Pass is required at the trailhead.